- Approval of Minutes from January 4, 2023 Meeting
  - Jesse reviewed previous minutes; meeting minutes approved.
- Cedar Update (Mr. Craddock)
  - We have been preparing for the Art Show and integrating the event into the spring teacher conferences.
  - Volunteers for the event will need to have a completed CORI/SORI form.
  - Top Secret Science visited Cedar School on February 9th and February 14th and delivered a wonderful experience for both our kindergarten and first grade students. Students were engaged in hands-on learning activities. Thank you to the HPTA for funding this event.
  - One Book One School is a school wide event where all students and staff members are provided a copy of the same book. Everyone participates in reading the books together and discussing themes and ideas from the book. Culminating activities then ensue. We have chosen a local author this year to visit Cedar School and share her book. We will be seeking volunteers to help with the event.
  - The Book Fair will be held during the week of March 27th. A sign-up form will be shared with parent(s)/guardian(s) for volunteer opportunities.
- Cedar School Handbook Review
  - Council members had an opportunity to review the current handbook and provide meaningful feedback.

- Other Matters

- Big Ryan's Tall Tales will be coming to Cedar School on March 9th to visit our preschool students. Big Ryan is an animated storyteller who through puppet play, music and movement engages children with his unique funny stories. This program was funded by HPTA.
- Conferences will be taking place March 28th and March 30th.

The next meeting is April 5, 2023
